

Updated banners for city website

The montage of Biloxi landmarks that had been atop the city's web site, shown below, will be joined by a trio of other montages, which will alternate randomly, each time visitors hit the Refresh button on their browser. The new montages, which will rolled out today, are designed to reflect the on-going citywide rebuilding efforts.

Original, pre-Katrina montage:

New versions, which will alternate with the original:
