

The construction of these facilities was made possible with funding from a Hurricane Katrina Recovery Block Grant administered by Governor Haley Barbour, Mississippi Development Authority (MDA) and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as well as funding from Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Mississippi Emergency Management Agency (MEMA).

Mayor A.J. Holloway and the Biloxi City Council
 George Lawrence • William “Bill” Stallworth • Lucy Denton • Clark Griffith
 Tom Wall • Edward “Ed” Gemmill • David Fayard

“ Just as our ancestors did generations before us, we have overcome a huge challenge. We survived an unprecedented natural disaster. Now, let’s have an unprecedented response, one where we’ll rebuild this city – again – to one of the greatest communities in America. ”

–A.J. Holloway, Sept. 4, 2005

*Mayor A.J. Holloway and the Biloxi City Council
invite you to the ribbon cutting for two landmark structures
Biloxi Lighthouse Park and Visitors Center
1050 Beach Boulevard
July 14, 2011 at 4:00 p.m.
followed by the
Biloxi Civic Center
578 Howard Avenue
at 6:30 p.m.*

Following the ceremony stay around for an evening of dinner and dancing.

Attendees are encouraged to park at the Civic Center.
Shuttles will be provided between the Civic Center and the Visitors Center.

