HITTER OF THE WEEK

TURNER BISHOP, OLD DOMINION
Senior, OF, Virginia Beach, Virginia

Bishop hit safely in all five games for No. 25 Old Dominion last week, posting a .526 average (10-for-19) to raise his season batting average 34 points to .307. He drove in 13 runs on the week, including 12 in the FIU series, and had two doubles and two home runs. Bishop hit a grand slam and drove in seven runs (the most by a Monarch player this season) in Saturday's game one victory. On Sunday, the Virginia Beach, Virginia, native hit a go-ahead, two-run home run to cap off a nine-run seventh inning to finish a rally after trailing 10-2 and post a series-clinching 11-10 win.

PITCHER OF THE WEEK

TYLER GIOVANONI, UTSA
Junior, RHP, Schertz, Texas

Giovanoni was masterful in throwing his second consecutive complete game as he led UTSA to a 5-0 victory at Charlotte last Friday night. The Schertz, Texas, native matched a season-best seven strikeouts and surrendered just two hits and one walk to the 49ers. He retired the first 14 batters he faced before giving up a hit in the fifth inning and faced just 30 batters in the game, throwing 98 total pitches. The shutout over Charlotte was the third for UTSA this season and the complete-game effort was the eighth in Giovanoni's career.
