

City of Biloxi Presents a Black History Month Program

African Americans and the Arts

Feb. 22, 2024 • 6-8 p.m.

Dr. Frank G Gruich Center, 591 Howard Ave.

Hear inspiring stories for youth in the community to understand the role art has played in the African American History.

Stories will convey why various forms of art were chosen and the importance of carrying on the rich and colorful traditions.

The use of art has the power to educate and inspire, and illustrates beauty, strength and resilience

Hotdogs, hamburgers, and refreshments will be served.
