

ARTICLE VI. BEAUTIFICATION COMMISSION

Sec. 2-6-1. Established.

In order to make adequate provision, preparation, adoption and revision of the city plan to guide, direct and coordinate the beautification of the city in an orderly, efficient, healthful and economic manner, there is hereby created a commission to be known as the city beautification commission, referred to in this article as the commission.

Sec. 2-6-2. Membership; term of office; compensation of commissioners.

The beautification commission shall be composed of seven members, all of whom shall be resident citizens of the city and qualified electors therein. The members will be appointed by the city council. Each member shall be appointed for a period of three years. Vacancies shall be filled by the city council in accordance with this section, and appointments to fill vacancies shall be for unexpired terms only. Each member shall be eligible for reappointment, and all members of the commission shall serve without pay.

Sec. 2-6-3. Officers; rules of procedure.

The beautification commission shall elect from among its members its own chairman, vice-chairman and secretary, and provide from time to time such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the ordinances of the city, for its own organization and procedure as it may deem proper. Four members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The commission shall appoint as many ex officio members as it may deem necessary in order to achieve the purposes for which it was created.

Sec. 2-6-4. Powers and duties.

The beautification commission shall advise and coordinate with all city officials, agencies and civic groups with regard to the development of a comprehensive beautification plan, and shall conduct citywide educational programs and antilitter and cleanup campaigns in coordination with proper officials, agencies and groups. The commission shall advise and coordinate with the building official with regard to all housing code enforcement.
